CHRONIC PAIN SELF MANAGEMENT PROGRAM INSTRUCTOR
CERTIFICATION

Join us to become certified as a workshop leader for the Stanford University Chronic Pain Self- Management Program (CPSMP) – an evidence-based program designed to help others manage their own health, stay active, and take charge! We are looking for people who are motivated to help themselves and to assist others. You will enhance your health and the health of your community as you share the gift of self-management with others. You do not need any previous teaching or healthcare experience, but you must attend all four days in order to be certified. There is no fee! You will receive all materials, handouts, supplies, and refreshments during your training. Upon completion, you will be expected to co-lead at least one six-week CPSMP workshop in your community. Do not miss a chance to be a part of this life-changing program!
